EVENTS

Bud Light 'Hump Day' Wednesdays

Every Wednesday, 2:30-5:30pm

Join us at Slopeside Grill in Torian Plum Plaza, where the Ice Bar is in full effect and the party is on! For the next several Wednesdays you can "get over the hump" with drink specials, entertainment, and incredible giveaways. Brought to you by solar powered radio, KFMU.

Women's Ski Camp

Tuesday-Thursday, March 5th – 7th

1984 Olympic Gold medalist, Deb Armstrong, is joined by three-time Olympian Caroline Lalive in leading the Steamboat Women's Ski Camp. Under their direction, all certified female coaches lead this program for women only, with an emphasis on camaraderie and skill improvement in a positive atmosphere that maximizes learning. The program includes breakfast at Stoker on day one, lunch at Hazie's daily, First Tracks on second and third day, technical equipment session, and culminates with a social cocktail gathering on the last day of the program. Also enjoy a variety of special deals and gifts as participants! For intermediate and above skiers, levels 5-8. www.Steamboat.com

The Young Dubliners

Saturday, March 9, 3pm

Bud Light 'Rocks The Boat' FREE CONCERT! ~ The hard-rocking Irish band, the Young Dubliners owe everything to their fans. "They keep us honest, expecting good music both on the road and on the albums," mentions frontman Keith Roberts. The inspiration for Real World, the group's third record on Higher Octave, is drawn from the trials and tribulations of being a real, working band and their life on the road. "We are all aware of how lucky we are to be making a living by doing what we love. Without being on the road and playing to our fans, that just wouldn't be possible," Roberts explains. Building a fervent fan base comparable to that of jam band rockers like Phish, The Young Dubliners have become notorious for the whirling "jig pits" that erupt at their live shows.

The Fighting Jamesons

at Strings Music Festival

Friday, March 15, 8pm

This Irish inspired rock group has quickly made a name for themselves thanks to their fiery high-energy shows. They deliver a rollicking hybrid of Irish traditional and American rock 'n' roll splattered with sing-along choruses and hoisted pints of Guinness. Tickets start at $25.
